MEMORANDUM FOR:

Secretary, IAC

SUBJECT : Special Budget Analysis - FY 1956

In a memorandum dated 3 September 1954, The Bureau of the Budget requested a special budget analysis summarizing the Fiscal Year 1956 budget estimates for overt intelligence collection activities which are the direct responsibilities of the members of the IAC.

Attached, for the review and approval of the IAC, is a copy of the special budget analysis. This report has been informally discussed with a representative of the Bureau of the Budget. In view of the timing involved, he stated that the report in its present form would satisfactorily serve the purposes for which it was requested this year.

Your earliest consideration of this report would be appreciated since the Bureau of the Budget has expressed its desire to receive it as soon as possible.

Memorandum for the Intelligence Review Committee
Subject: Special Budget Analysis - FY 1955

1. At the IAC meeting of 21 September 1954 (IAC-M-170) there were circulated copies of a letter dated 3 September 1954 from Mr. Rowland Hughes, Director of the Budget, requesting the IAC to "compile a special budget analysis summarizing by major agency the 1954 budget estimates for those overt intelligence collection activities which are the direct responsibility of the officers comprising the Committee." At the following meeting, on 5 October, (IAC-M-171) it was decided to send an interim reply to the Director of the Budget proposing that a committee meet with Mr. Macy, as suggested by Mr. Hughes, for further clarification. This letter was forwarded on 9 October (IAC-D-77/3) and the following ~~subcommittee~~ working group, under the chairmanship of Col. Lawrence F. White of CIA, was ~~later~~ named:

- Staff: Mr. Killea
- G-2: Col. Gretsner
- ONI: Capt. Stuart
- AF: Major LaVigne

2. There is attached for the review and approval of the IAC a copy of the special budget analysis prepared in response to this request. This report has been informally discussed with a representative of the Bureau of the Budget. In view of the timing involved, he stated that the report in its present form would satisfactorily serve the purposes for which it was requested this year.

2. The Bureau of the Budget has expressed the desire to receive this report as soon as possible. It will be appreciated, therefore, if you will give it your earliest consideration, and communicate your concurrence or non-concurrence in the report to the ^(Com 143, telegram 3408) Secretariat by noon, Friday, 10 December 1954.

3. Only one copy of this report is being sent to each of the IAC agencies since it is desired to limit the distribution of these budget figures on a need-to-know basis.

5. Questions regarding the report may be referred to the Secretariat.
